Our world rotated around you.

But one day...

You disappeared.
With its center gone, the Hour and Minute hand...
Left Time into chaos.
We need to find our center again.
Where are you, Alice?

FOR ALICE

Story & Art: Aru

CHAPTER 1 — THE START IS ALWAYS...

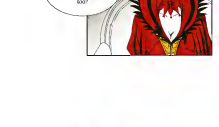
A world made for Alice, but she's not here?

What kind of paradox is that? It's like bread without butter.

If there's no Alice, then we'll just find another one. Now, that'll get rid of the paradox.

Look... just how many girls are you going to kidnap?
Why don't you give up already?

How long do you plan on obeying onto Alice like that? Grow up already.
Just because it started with Alice, doesn't mean it has to end with her



Look who's talking... weren't you created for Alice too?

If I was really created for her, then it's only right that I think from her perspective too.

Alice descended this world.
Right now, we.

SHATTER

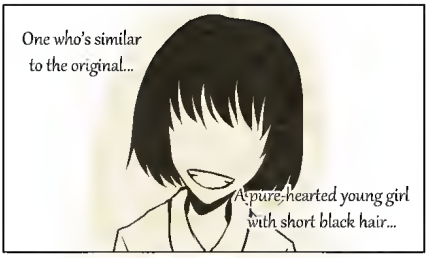
We're like that shattered cup.

Like how putting those pieces back together won't make it whole again
This world is the same too.

To Alice we're just a colorless world.
A discarded toy

Hahahaha
Hahahaha-HahahahaHaha

I have no thought of being abandoned as it is now
If Alice is gone, then we'll just make a new Alice!!!



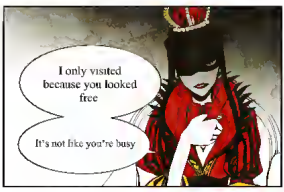
One who's similar to the original...
A pure-hearted young girl with short black hair...

Then everything will be perfect again!

Ah!
How boring
This was the worst tea party ever.

Why in the world did you come here when you were uninvited?

After all, isn't the key to this story
in your possession
The White Rabbit?

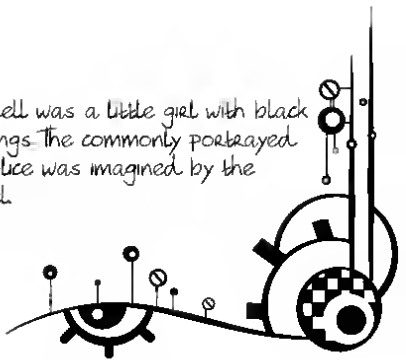


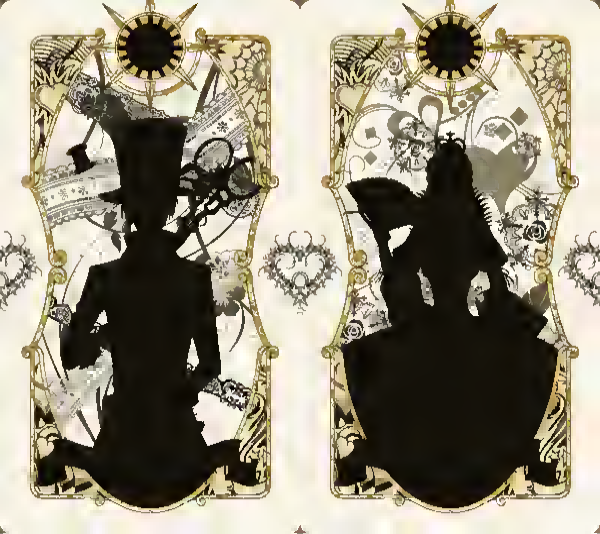
Now... let the story begin...

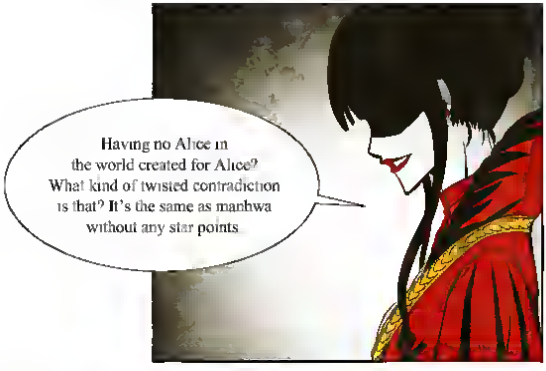
Harold

CF

The actual Alice Liddell was a little girl with black hair and straight bangs. The commonly portrayed blonde longhaired Alice was imagined by the illustrator John Tenniel.







Having no Alice in the world created for Alice? What kind of twisted contradiction is that? It's the same as manhwa without any star points.

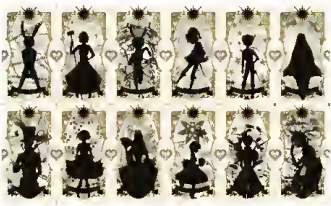
Wow this is unexpectedly fun

Hello, this is ARU.
Thank you for being interested in [For Alice].
Actually, I wanted to start some sort of an event but...



Damn, ㅠㅠ All the characters are shadows... ㅠㅠ
So I have some things I'm curious about and... as a sort of a pre-investigation(?), I'd like to do a survey.

Everyone~ who is your most favorite character in the original [Alice's Adventures in Wonderland]?

Leave a comment below on which of the numbered characters is your favorite. I can't wait to see everyone's replies.
